COMPLAINT

In violation of United States Constitution Ammendment #4, TEXAS DPS officer CORONADO and his team of K-9 search dog handlers conducted a thorough search of the interior of my Motor Home without my permission or a search warrant on Sunday, 04.MAR.2001. I believe that the fourth ammendment to the United States Constitution specificaly protects a person's right to be secure in their papers things and effects and that right shall not be violated without the due process of the law, without a search warrant issued by a judge based on probable cause of a crime in progress suported by sworn testimony of witnesses under the penalty of perjury. In my case the Texas DPS officer did not have my permission or a search warrant to proceed with the interior search of my Motor Home, I informed him that without proper search warrant anything he found would not be admissible in court, he understood and went ahead anyway, after several hours of search with four different K-9 search dogs there was nothing illegal found in my Motor Home and I was free to go on my way. With this complaint I intend to litigate for damages in the amount of 20 Million US dollars against Texas DPS for the violation of my Fourth Ammendment US Constitutional civil rights on 04.MAR.2001 with the warrantless illegal search of my Motor Home.
